Privacy Policy

CAPP does not collect any personal information about visitors to this web site other than that which is specifically and knowingly provided by you.

CAPP does collect and maintain statistics relating to the number of visits to the site, types of browsers used and Domain Name or Internet Protocol address of the originator. This information is kept strictly confidential by CAPP and is used for internal purposes only.

Participant information collected on web site forms will only be used for administrative purposes related to Investment Symposium.

Delegate name and company information will be used to create a list distributed to all Symposium attendees. The conference planner, e=mc2 event management inc. and the online registration company, Dot Com Your Event, will have this information and is subject to a privacy agreement that calls for the destruction of participant information after the event.

If you have any concerns relating to the privacy or confidentiality of this site, please contact us at communication@capp.ca.
